REPORT

Name : "KABASURA KUDINEER" Program

Date :10/3/2021

The Kabasura Kudineer Program focuses on harnessing the therapeutic benefits of Kabasura Kudineer, a traditional Siddha medicine formulation widely recognized for its efficacy in managing respiratory infections and viral fevers. Originating from ancient Siddha texts, Kabasura Kudineer contains a blend of medicinal herbs known for their immune-boosting and anti-inflammatory properties. Educating healthcare practitioners and the public about the traditional uses and benefits of Kabasura Kudineer in treating respiratory ailments. Conducting scientific research and clinical trials to validate its effectiveness and safety, aligning traditional knowledge with evidence-based medicine. Facilitating the production of Kabasura Kudineer through licensed manufacturers and ensuring its availability in healthcare facilities and pharmacies. Raising awareness among communities about Kabasura Kudineer as a preventive measure and treatment option during flu seasons and outbreaks of respiratory infections. Collaborating with stakeholders, including traditional medicine practitioners and regulatory authorities, to advocate for the integration of Kabasura Kudineer into healthcare protocols and guidelines. By promoting Kabasura Kudineer, the program aims to provide accessible and culturally relevant healthcare solutions, support traditional medicine practices, and contribute to public health efforts in combating respiratory illnesses effectively.
